

Character Breakdowns

Luz Garcia: Hispanic female, early to mid 20s, Civil Engineer in Training at Red Castle Engineers, wife to Omar. She is a Godfearing young woman who loves life and knows how to have fun. She is sincere, loving towards her husband and family, and generous, but she can be a firecracker at times. Bilingual Lead role.

Omar Garcia: Hispanic male, mid to late 20s, blue collar shop worker, husband to Luz. He is a natural born comedian, constantly making jokes. He enjoys life, spending time with his wife, enjoys eating Mexican food but can be stubborn at times. Bilingual Lead role.

Vinh Tran: Vietnamese male, 30s, Civil Engineering Designer, colleague to Luz. He is supporting Luz's project. He is a hard worker and is ready to lend a hand to ensure projects are successful. Supporting role. ALREADY CAST

Malcolm James: African American, 30s, Civil Engineering Designer, colleague to Luz. He is supporting Luz's project. He is a hard worker and ready to meet the needs of the project. Featured role.

Jillian Thompson: Caucasian female, 20s, Civil Engineer in Training, colleague to Luz. She is a new college graduate supporting Luz on her project. She is a team player and always ready to pitch-in where needed. Featured role.

Raymond Cruz: Hispanic male, 20s, Civil Engineering Intern, colleague to Luz. He is young, observant and ready to learn. Featured role. ALREADY CAST

Stanley Cooper: Caucasian male, 40s-50s, Director of Projects and Luz's direct supervisor. He is a great leader, engaged with employees and looks out for their wellbeing. Supporting role. ALREADY CAST

Maria Cuellar: Hispanic female, 50s-60s, widow, mother to Luz. She is a sweet, loving caring mother. Spanish Speaking Supporting role.

Young Luz: Hispanic female, 6-8 years old. This younger version of Luz is precocious with finances as she finds unexpected money. Featured role.

Teen Luz: Hispanic female, 12-13 years old. This version of Luz represents her entrepreneurial skills earning money as a babysitter, saving her money into adulthood. Featured role.

Blake Garrison: Caucasian male, 30-40s, Blue collar shop worker, Omar's coworker. He is very cynical, has a cold heart and is not easily convinced. He is skeptical towards the things of God. Supporting role.

Toby Rogers: African American male, mid to late 20s, Blue collar shop worker, Omar's coworker. He is a comedian at heart and very laid back, uses humor to connect with his coworkers. He is receptive to things of faith. Supporting role.

Guillermo "Memo" Salazar: Hispanic male, 40s-50s, Shop Supervisor, boss to Omar. He is a very down to Earth leader, enjoys humor and engaging his employees. He is supportive but stern where needed. Supporting role. ALREADY CAST

Lauren Fisher: Caucasian female, 40s, Furniture salesperson, she helps Omar and Luz to find the furniture they seek. She is kind, patient and has a great smile. Supporting role. ALREADY CAST

Anthony Martinez: Hispanic male, early teens. He is a Hard-Working boy who cuts grass to earn money and support his family but also has a heart for world missions. Supporting role.

Church Greeters (2): any ethnicity/age, church members who represent the church with their smiling faces and love. Featured role.

Worship Leader: Hispanic female, 30s-40s, Worship Leader in the church that Luz and Omar attend. Very Spirit filled woman who enjoys bringing God's people to His presence with uplifting songs, edifying the church with the music. Supporting role.

ALREADY CAST

Pastor Ramiro Vela: Hispanic male, 50s-60s. Senior Pastor of the Church that Luz and Omar attend. He is a Spirit filled man of God, charismatic, passionate and loves to present the Word of God with conviction, sharing truth in love. He places a high priority on supporting missions. Supporting role. ALREADY CAST

Ushers (2): any ethnicity/age, church members who represent the church with their smiling faces and love as they collect the offering. Featured role. ALREADY CAST

Church Man: Caucasian male, 20s, church goer sitting next to Omar. He is an encourager, a faithful giver of tithes and offerings. He is confident in God's ability to bless the giver. Supporting role.

Church Woman: African American female, 60s-70s, wise and faithful church member sitting next to Luz. She is strong and confident in God's ability to bless finances. Supporting role.

Jolene Taylor: African American female, 50s, Office professional reporting directly to Stanley Cooper. She is a very professional, lovely but firm when it comes to work tasks. Supporting role.

Patricia Harris: Caucasian, 40s, Human Resources Professional at Red Castle Engineers. She is a professional but connects with the employees with empathy and concern. Supporting role.

ALREADY CAST

Danielle Rogers: African American female, mid to late 20s, mother of Donte and Tamia, wife of Toby. She is a fun, loving and supporting wife who takes charge of getting her family in order. Supporting role.

Donte Rogers: African American male, 8-10 years of age, son of Toby and Danielle. He is inquisitive, honest and tells it like it is. Supporting role.

Tamia Rogers: African American female, 5-7 years of age, daughter of Toby and Danielle. She is cute and transparent. Supporting role.

Extras: any ethnicity/age needed during the following scenes:

Office: Office Workers (3-4)

Shop/Warehouse: Machine shop workers (2-3)

Furniture Store: Shoppers (5-10)

Church Service: Congregants (50-100)

Mexican Restaurant: Waiter & Customers (5 - 10)

Garcia House: Delivery Guys (2)